

13 Short Takes...

Shaw's will be required to provide unit pricing in all shelf tags and in-store advertising signs which advertise Shaw's Rewards Card discounts. A consumer filed a suit in court alleging the chain violated state law by failing to list unit prices on items that are discounted under the card program. Shaw's decided to settle the matter and maintains that its past practices were in compliance with state law.... Stop & Shop and Giant have joined with Commerce, Calif.- based Earthwise Bag Go to launch a reusable shopping bag program. The Earthwise bags will retail for $.99... Pepsi plans to purchase Naked Juice from North Castle Partners.... King Arthur Flour was named Best Place To Work in Vermont by several state and human resource groups... A national computer store chain (Comp USA) and Super 88, a group of Asian supermarkets opened on Thanksgiving Day in Massachusetts despite a state law which prohibits large retail discount and food markets from opening on that day. William Candon of the George Greer Co. succeeds Nancy Starziano of the Eastside Marketplace as the chairman of the Rhode Island Food Dealers Assn... Pathmark Stores of Carteret, N.J., has joined the national cooperative Topco Associates enabling Pathmark to take part in Topco's private label, grocery, HBC, general merchandise, frozen foods, dairy and bakery program. American Culinary ChefsBest, an independent judging organization dedicated to recognizing and honoring the best products in America judged the nation's best tasting sweetened dried cranberries as Ocean Spray Craisins...